

LifeLine

EMPOWERING WOMEN AND THEIR FAMILIES.

LifeLine for women and children is a substance use/mental health treatment program for adults designed to treat and support women experiencing substance use and psychiatric disorders as they progress through their recovery. LifeLine specializes in treatment that empowers women to make positive choices for themselves and their children and to develop competence in all aspects of family life. Team members are specialists in substance use; psychiatric treatment, community adjustment and gender-responsive, trauma-informed care.

The program also provides intensive outpatient and outpatient levels of care and includes transportation, babysitting for infant to preschool-aged children and case management.

Treatment helps individuals:

- Stop or reduce substance use
- Improve parenting skills
- Cope with anxiety and depression
- Connect with community supports

Core components of care include:

- Substance use and mental health treatment and education
- Individual, couple and family therapy
- Comprehensive assessment
- Specialized groups for substance abuse, trauma and co-occurring disorders
- Random observed toxicology screening
- Community outreach and care coordination
- Transportation and childcare
- Psychiatric evaluations and medication management
- Discharge planning and aftercare
